School Accountability Report Card

Reported Using Data from the 2015-16 School Year

Published During 2016-17

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or LCAP, see the CDE LCFF Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest Web page at <http://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2016-17)

California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown believes that, given a comprehensive and mastery-based curriculum, high expectations, access to technology, strong instructional support, a significant amount of off-line work, guidance from experienced teachers, and a strong commitment from parents or other caring adults, a well-conceived virtual education program will boost student achievement, serve the unique needs of students and families, and offer a new model for effective public education in the 21st century.

The goals of our educational program include:

- Enabling all students to become self-motivated, competent and lifelong learners
- Empowering the parent as the teacher through a guided program and training
- Offering flexibility and choices to increase student interest in learning
- Using a variety of lessons, activities, and modalities to improve student achievement
- Striving for mastery of all skills by every student
- Developing reflective learners
- Developing technology literate students

Our Mission Statement

California Virtual Academy at Jamestown is a school whose mission is to educate students and lead them to higher level thinking. We recognize that each student is an individual with his or her own unique way of learning. We desire to help students tap into their potential to become future leaders who demonstrate integrity, independence, responsibility, and respectfulness for others.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System, which includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. The CAAs have replaced the California Alternate Performance Assessment [CAPA] for ELA and mathematics, which were eliminated in 2015. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAA items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with significant cognitive disabilities); and
- The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study

Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Note: The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

Career Technical Education Programs (School Year 2015-16)

This section provides information about the Career Technical Education (CTE) programs and lists programs offered by the school district that are aligned to the model curriculum standards. The list should identify courses conducted by regional occupational centers or programs and those conducted directly by the school district. This section provides a listing of the primary representative of the career technical advisory committee of the school district and industries represented.

We do not offer CTE.

C. Engagement

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the Parental Involvement State Priority (Priority 3):

- Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions for the school district and each schoolsite.

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2016-17)

Parents are a vital part of California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown. Parents will help us to evaluate the school's program each year through meetings and surveys. Each year when surveyed, parents of California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown students state that they are more involved in their child's education than they were at their previous school. Parents are encouraged to serve as mentors to new families and families that are struggling with technology complications or curriculum problems. The mentors support and encourage families in learning to navigate the day-to-day management of home education. Parents are given an opportunity to make their voices heard (both online and offline) about their likes and dislikes about the school. Some parents will be asked to give critiques and/or testimonials about the program.

Direct parental involvement is fundamental to the school's success. Parents are involved from the start of the school year by researching our program and choosing to enroll their child in our school. Parents attend a registration conference and agree to the enrollment requirements. Also, there are additional parent-teacher conferences held during the school year with the purpose of discussing progress and working as a team (with teachers and students) to implement the Individualized Learning Plan. By completing these steps, parents show they are committed to being an active member of their student's education team in our program.

At the start of each semester, there are sessions specifically targeted to helping new parents learn how to utilize the K12 learning platforms. Parents sessions with topics such as how to be effective instructional coaches are offered under the guidance of highly qualified and certificated teachers. Parents and students alike are exposed to a content-rich curriculum, including classic literature, a comprehensive re-telling of the story of history, various musical genres, and great works of art. Parents will have a rich social networking experience with the school Facebook site and Yahoo Groups. We have many resources available both online and offline. There are ongoing Parent/Learning Coach training opportunities through K12 Speaker Series, Online School tutorials, School Effectively at Home workshops and staff-presented Learning Coach workshops. We have a detailed Parent Student Handbook, Special Education handbook, and California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown New Parent Resource Guide.

Middle School teachers offer our middle school parents Parent Education sessions. These sessions provide support to our parents in understanding and working with their students in the common core curriculum for mathematics and English language arts (writing strategies, reading comprehension, and grammar). Further, how to engage students to attend online sessions and be actively working at home each day are discussed in a collaborative setting for parents.

High School regional leads offer high school parents Parent Education sessions in topics including how to support their struggling learner, how to monitor progress, and how to help their students study for tests. In addition, the high school counseling department offers many sessions for both students and parents on preparing for and getting into college.

Each year, California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown reviews the parent education and involvement offerings for additional areas of need to ensure we offer the richest experience possible.

Parents are actively encouraged to participate in California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown planning, organizational, Board of Directors, and other meetings. They are also encouraged to offer ideas and planning assistance with field trips, social events, and other outings. We have parent representatives on the California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown school board and the School Site Council. We offer community-building at the school and state level, as well as the national level with other virtual academies.

The California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown community encourages parents to discover the resource that best meets their needs. We have many layers of support in place, as well as opportunities for parent leadership.

School Safety Plan (School Year 2016-17)

The California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown takes staff and student health and safety very seriously. Because the school will be a virtual school, there will be no need for a school building where classes are held on a daily basis. The administrative office currently complies with all ADA, OSHA, and local health and safety requirements. The school has obtained all necessary permits for these offices including a building and fire marshal inspection and/or a certificate of occupancy.

Immunization forms and other pertinent medical records will be kept (confidentially) on file by the school administration. Parents are expected to ensure that their children obtain proper immunizations prior to matriculating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with §120325) of Part 2 of Division 105 of the Health and Safety Code. The school may exempt students from enrolling who are not properly immunized pursuant to §48216 (a-c) of the Education Code. Those parents who are having difficulty obtaining immunizations for their children will be provided information on where to get immunized in their community.

All pertinent and required health and safety documentation is collected at time of hire or enrollment as appropriate. Documentation is on file in the student's records or employee records held in security at the Simi Valley, CA office. Copies of employee records and student records can be made available at the request of the School District.

The school has drafted health and safety procedures that the school will follow to ensure the health and safety of pupils shall which include compliance with the criminal background check requirements described in Sections 44237 and 45125.1 of the Education Code.

Professional Development (Most Recent Three Years)

California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown professional development activities for the K-12th grade staff are designed to be pertinent to staff professional needs and to enhance student instruction and learning. A variety of staff development opportunities are provided to increase interest and expertise, acquire new ideas and materials, and develop instructional techniques, strategies, organization, and classroom management skills.

California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown's administration staff holds meetings in person, as well as virtually, various time of the year to provide staff professional development. In Person professional development meetings occur at the beginning of the school year, and quarterly thereafter. Virtual teacher meetings also occur regularly throughout the year, both weekly with local teacher teams and monthly to provide All Staff Professional Development. Teachers are also welcome to research and attend workshops they feel will be beneficial to the enhancement of their profession. Administration provides surveys to both staff members and parents to determine areas of need in Professional Development for teachers on a regular basis (monthly and at the end of each school year).

Lead teachers provide expertise in areas of strength through ongoing training and support to staff. Each department within the school provides specific professional development for teachers.

The Elementary Department staff participates in both in-person and virtual professional development throughout the year. A one-day, in-person professional development conference is held in August before students starting school. This conference provides dynamic opportunities for all elementary staff to engage in collaboration, professional development, and preparation for the upcoming school year. It also provides a unique venue for teachers and leaders alike to work together in person, both in large and small groups, to focus on program updates, instructional excellence, and student achievement.

Professional Development topics for each school year are selected based on feedback provided by staff on surveys and from our Student Achievement Plans, which are grade-level curriculum and support maps to help teachers guide their instruction and support students on their individual path to success. Two more in-person professional developments are held throughout the school year. Once in October and once in March. Grade level collaboration is taking up the majority of the agenda for these two meetings. Curriculum Roundtables are held each quarter by the curriculum team on various topics to help teachers with the curriculum. Grade level collaboration is encouraged weekly. Instructional coaches provide individual professional plans to each teacher to help them with their instructional goals.

Locally-based, in-person Teacher Collaboration Days are held each quarter. These meetings provide an opportunity for teachers to meet with regional teaching teams, discuss student engagement and achievement, plan for upcoming events, and share best teaching practices with a hands-on approach. Elementary staff are encouraged and supported with attending professional development opportunities outside of California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown. The staff that attends an outside conference present an overview of what was learned and/or provide training to colleagues.

Middle school staff professional development is determined by survey feedback of all middle school staff. The administration chose specific topics of focus based on the results of the survey, which specifically included: Meaningful Instruction Based on Student Data, Rescuing At Risk Students, Setting High Student Expectations, and Monitoring Student Growth and Potential. For the 2016-2017 school year, the focus is on Reporting Student Performance with a PLC focus on Giving effective feedback: Rubrics & Grading, Inclusive Classroom Teaching: Continuing the flow of learning (Incorporating new students into class), with a PLC focus of Prevention vs. Intervention: Planning for early identification and developing efforts to address difficulties & providing appropriate support for mid-year enrollment, Polishing and refining student work: Keeping the momentum- attention to performance standard expectations, with a PLC focus of Renewed attention to qualitative aspects of student work. How has the student grown based on rubrics, 16-17 Celebrations, and 17-18 Planning, with a PLC focus of Professional reflection & collaboration focused on improving instructional practices?

Based on teacher's area of concentration of student academic needs through the course of the school year, strategic professional development was provided to support teachers in student engagement and academic achievement. The structure of the professional development meetings was research based in an adult learner format, along with the "CAVA @ Jamestown Connection" for each topic. From the results of each monthly survey, the administration continued to ensure that this professional development remained relevant for teachers and students achievement.

Further, the Jamestown Middle School teachers and administrators meet each semester in person. These in-person meetings are designed for teachers to collaborate on student achievement and instructional planning.

Instructional coaching is also an important part of professional development. The Middle School team has implemented instructional coaching through informal walk thru or pop-in visits as well as non-evaluative formalize observations where the regional lead meets with the teacher after the observation to reflect upon the instruction, live data, and desired growth of the teacher.

High school staff participates in professional development both in-person and virtually. Staff participates in an in-person professional development in August before students return as well as at least one additional in-person professional development in each semester focused on topics related to identified staff and student needs at that time. Also, high school staff participates virtually in monthly professional development in their regional teams as well as with their curriculum specialists.

To determine professional develop needs, a needs assessment is used to identify professional development topics that are offered throughout the year for high school staff. Initial topics are chosen based on the results of a survey sent to staff several times each year, with adjustments to professional development offered as needs arise. Topics covered have included, Instructional Strategies, Communicating Expectations, Supporting At-Risk Students, Student Engagement, Providing Meaningful Feedback, and Supporting Academic Achievement. Teachers are encouraged to lead these professional development opportunities. Also, all staff members are encouraged to seek outside professional development to meet additional individual needs by submitting a proposal which is reviewed by the administration and approved by LCAP Goals.

Feedback from staff informs the professional development offered throughout the year for high school staff. Initial topics are chosen based on the results of a needs assessment sent to staff in the spring of the prior year, with adjustments to professional development offered as needs arise. Topics covered have included Student Engagement, Instructional Strategies, Communicating Expectations, Providing Meaningful Feedback, Supporting At-Risk Students and Supporting Academic Achievement. Professional Development is offered in both virtual (monthly) and in-person (quarterly) formats, and teacher contributions are highly encouraged. In addition, all staff members are encouraged to seek outside professional development to meet additional individual needs. When staff members wish to attend specialized professional development, they may submit a proposal which is reviewed by high school administration.

California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown's Intervention Specialists work closely with those students who are struggling with math and language arts. Professional development for this team has focused on instructional strategies for improving the quality of instruction, closely monitoring progress, and adapting lessons to meet the needs of individual learners. The intervention department partnered with an expert from the National Center on Intensive Intervention to provide professional development tailored to the unique needs of this team. Professional development is in-person once per semester, and occurs virtually monthly. These events encourage staff to collaborate and participate in case studies to strengthen the impact of instruction with California Virtual Academy @ Jamestown students.
