Be in the Know...

Happy May and last full month of this school year! Our students have been hard at work all year long, and they have been gearing up for state testing. Students in grades 3-8 will participate in CAASP testing during the month of May. A schedule for testing will be released prior to students starting. This can be a stressful time for students, and we want everyone to be able to do their best and feel successful! You can help by making sure your children arrive to school on time and are getting plenty of rest the night before. Some good test taking habits and strategies are making sure your student gets a full 8 hours of sleep the night before school, a well balanced breakfast, and encouraging your children with love and support as they embark on their testing journey this month. Students do their best when they feel their best!

Not only are students showing what they know on their state testing, but we would like to invite you to our classrooms for an open house to showcase all of your children's hard work from this school year. Open house at Jamestown Elementary is on May 1st from 5:30 PM-7:00 PM. Families are welcome to meet in the quad by the flag pole at 5:15 PM; classrooms open at 5:30 PM.

Lastly, to kick off May, the middle school will be hosting their Spring Fling in the JES cafeteria on May 2nd! If you are willing to chaperone, please contact Mrs. Rivas.

A Message from our Counselors

The word of the month for May is Creativity. It is the ability to generate unique and valuable ideas and solutions, often using imagination. We can develop this skill through practice, learning and exposure to different ideas and perspectives.

Counseling Update: On June 5th, all School Counseling will end for school year, or at the end of Summer School, if attending.
